15 winners across five age groups were selected to conclude October's contest

Cohasset residents got a little extra Halloween cheer this year thanks to the Safe Harbor Youth Ambassador Program's pumpkin decorating contest.

Over the last two weeks, 173 pumpkins were on display throughout the Village after a week-long decorating period.

The pumpkins, provided by Safe Harbor from the Boy Scout's ASP Pumpkin Patch, were handed out in mid-October for free to registered residents.

The 173 entrants were divided into five age groups; age 2 to grade 2, grade 3 to 5, grade 6 to 8, grade 9 to 12, and over 18.

Through a town-wide vote, 15 winners were picked, dispersed through each age group.

Residents were given the opportunity to cast their votes over a five day period at the end of the month, with the winners announced on Friday.

In the youngest age division, Bodhi Dibble, Charlotte Dibble, and Brooke Maggi were announced as the winners.

For grades 3 to 5, Bree Cody, Grayson Dial, Cole Linhart, and Charlie Tabaczynski took home the prize.

Nicholas Askjaer, Ava Coffey, and Nolan Smith were named winners for the grade 6 to 8 division.

At the high school level, Natalie Corwin and Sophie Gardiner were the contest winners.

The 18 and over division was won by Mae Carpenter, Torey Chapdelaine, and Tara Daisy.

Each winner received a gift card to different businesses in the Village, courtesy of the Cohasset Chamber of Commerce who partnered with the Youth Ambassadors and Safe Harbor for the event.
